More than 200 Conveners in Over 100 Session Proposals

If your preferred session topic is not listed on the AOGS2007 session list for your abstract submission by early November, send in your session proposals for review now.

To have further details &/or to participate in AOGS2007, you would first require a login account. With the login password into the AOGS2007 internal site, you would be able to decide whether to propose a session, add your name as a co-convenor, submit your abstract or be an industrial participant, etc. *

 The login account is not the registration for the assembly & there is no financial commitment when submitting a session proposal. An USD 21 abstract processing fee per abstract applies when you submit the abstract.
